Francisco Rug

Designed and Manufactured in Brooklyn, NY by Caroline Z. Hurley

DESCRIPTION

This light weight hand woven rug is inspired by Antigua, Guatemala. It is hand-spun, hand dyed cotton and manufactured by a man named Francisco who lives in the hills of Guatemala. After absorbing the culture, quality and color of the magical town of Antigua, Caroline came back to her Brooklyn studio and created a collection based on her trip. This rug has an airy, fresh quality and will bring life into a room.

Made in Guatemala.
