Kenza Flat-Weave Rug

Designed and Manufactured in Brooklyn, NY by Aelfie

DESCRIPTION

Did you ever window shop "Designers Way" in Manhattan and think about how unfair it is that you'll never be able to hire one of those people who goes into those "To The Trade" storefronts? Do you look at your vision collage and consider the logistics of kidnapping a decorator and impressing them into revamping your space under threat of bodily harm? Well, this rug is basically like if you took the whole two blocks and shook them around in a paper bag and onto your floor like the contents of a high design piñata.

Speaking of which, this goes really well with a high design piñata.

Aelfie rugs are designed in Brooklyn and handmade by artisans in India.

Rug Pads available at an additional cost.
