Woolsey Agent Desk

Designed and Manufactured in Costa Mesa, CA by Sean Woolsey

DESCRIPTION

The Woolsey Agent Desk. Aptly named after my favorite agent of all time, Mr. Bond. If James Bond were to own a desk, no doubt this would be it. Sexy design, hidden details, yet smooth and functional without any frills. Nothing is missing from this desk. Made of American Black Walnut and a steel powder coated base. Blum soft close drawer slides on the 2 drawers, black leather lined drawer bottoms, a lockable stow area (perfect for laptop, iPad, your favorite whiskey, etc.) and a built-in leather mouse pad that only can open with a strong magnetic wood geode (provided), and allows for perfect storage of writing instruments, notepad and mouse. A magnetic power block (2 power, 4 USB) can be attached anywhere on the steel frame, and moved in a second's notice depending on when and where you need power.
